NAVY DECLASSIFICATION/RELEASE INSTRUCTIONS
ON FILE

Mr. Robert Amory
Deputy Director for Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 "E" Street, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Amory,

I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the lecture which you presented to the students of the Operational Intelligence Orientation Course for Senior Friendly-Allied Officers on 26 July 1960.

Your presence during the opening week of this new course and the method with which you conveyed a desire to take the audience into your confidence added considerable prestige to the curriculum and has elicited many enthusiastic responses from this very heterogeneous student body.

Permit me once again to extend my sincere thanks and appreciation for the generous contribution of your valuable time.

Sincerely,

B. E. WIGGIN
Captain, USN
Director
